

Franklin D. Roosevelt American Heritage Museum and the Master Singers of Worcester present

Eleanor Roosevelt Returns to Worcester

An Afternoon with Eleanor Roosevelt – Living History at Union Station

Come and enjoy ...

the dramatic Eleanor Roosevelt portrayal by actress Elena Dodd

And ... the dramatic cantata Eleanor Roosevelt performed by the Master Singers of Worcester, with special guest narrator Senator Harriette L. Chandler and guest mezzo-soprano soloist D'Anna Fortunato

Followed by a reception and tour of the Franklin D. Roosevelt Museum

Saturday, March 24th, 2007 – 3:00 pm Union Station – Worcester

Ticket holders dining in Union Station - The Restaurant following the program will receive a complimentary salad and dessert with purchase of dinner.

Tickets available through The Master Singers of Worcester before March 19.
After March 19, tickets will be available at the event as space permits.
Phone 508.842.1349, email info@mswma.org or visit their web site at www.mswma.org Tickets: $8 in advance, $10 day of event. Space is limited.

Support for this program has been provided by: UnumProvident; George F. & Sybil H. Fuller Foundation; TD Banknorth; Worcester Cultural Commission - an agency of the Massachusetts Cultural Council, a state agency; Massachusetts Foundation for the Humanities - a state affiliate of the National Endowment for the Humanities; Worcester Telegram and Gazette; Wealth Advisory Services, LLC, Worcester, and Union Station - The Restaurant.